INTENT: The grievance procedure is intended to be self-executing and easy to use. An injured worker may call the grievance coordinator directly without completing this form. The grievance coordinator may complete the form for the injured worker. A review regarding the requested medical care will begin immediately, and a decision made within 44 days of receipt unless additional information is required from outside the service area. The review period may be extended by mutual agreement between the injured worker and the grievance coordinator, with notice provided to all other participating parties.

The injured worker's participation in the grievance process is important to the resolution of medical issues. Individuals reviewing the grievance may need to speak directly with and receive input from the injured worker. If the injured worker is unable to participate actively in the grievance process, a patient advocate may participate on behalf of the injured worker.

If the injured worker, employer, or carrier is dissatisfied with the final decision of the grievance committee, the dissatisfied party has the right to file a petition for Benefits with the Florida Division of Workers' Compensation.

Any person who, knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any employee, insurance company, or self-insured program, files a statement of claim containing any false or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.
