Secretary Dudek Supports Hispanic Heritage Month

TALLAHASSEE—“Each year from September 15 to October 15 the Agency for Health Care Administration observes National Hispanic Heritage Month by recognizing the many contributions Hispanics have made in our great State and across the nation. We take this time to celebrate how far we’ve come in making quality health care available to all Floridians, including our growing Hispanic population. The Agency also supports Governor Rick Scott’s Hispanic Heritage Month contests, which offers Hispanic children the chance to win four year college scholarships.”

More information about National Hispanic Heritage Month can be found by visiting www.hispanicheritagemonth.gov. Information about the contests and Florida’s Hispanic heritage is available on Florida’s Hispanic Heritage Month website, www.FloridaHispanicHeritage.com.
