Florida Agency for Health Care Administration
Americans with Disabilities Act Grievance Procedure

I. Responsible Employee

The Agency’s designated Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Responsible Employee¹ (hereafter “Compliance Officer”) is:

Rachel Goldstein, ADA Compliance Officer
2727 Mahan Drive, Mail Stop #3
Tallahassee, FL 32308
Telephone: (850) 412-3931
TTY: (800) 955-8771

The Compliance Officer’s primary function is to coordinate the Agency’s efforts to receive and investigate disability discrimination complaints alleging non-compliance by the Agency or its contractors with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and federal regulations implementing same (collectively, “Disability Discrimination Complaints”).

In addition to serving as the main point of contact for the receipt of Disability Discrimination Complaints and related ADA questions, the Compliance Officer coordinates the Agency’s ADA compliance efforts. These efforts include the investigation of, as appropriate, and response to any Disability Discrimination Complaint communicated to the Agency.

¹ The Agency is required to designate a Responsible Employee pursuant to Part 35 of Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, titled “Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in State and Local Government Services” (see 28 C.F.R. § 35.107), and Part 84 of Title 45, Code of Federal Regulations, titled “Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Handicap in Programs or Activities Receiving Federal Financial Assistance” (see 45 C.F.R. § 84.7).
II. Who Can Make a Disability Discrimination Complaint

An individual who believes that he or she has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability regarding the Agency or a Medicaid managed care plan may, by himself or herself or by an authorized representative, file a complaint.\(^2\) The complainant or his or her authorized representative may choose between two complaint resolution processes described below to submit their ADA Complaint.

III. How to Make a Disability Discrimination Complaint

Option 1: Medicaid Complaints

In order to receive the fastest possible response, Florida Medicaid recipients who have a Disability Discrimination Complaint concerning the manner in which a Florida Medicaid funded service was provided, or not provided, are encouraged to complete the online complaint form available on the Florida Medicaid Complaint Operations Center website at:

https://apps.ahca.myflorida.com/smmc_cirts/

A complaint to the Agency should be filed as soon as possible but no later than 180 calendar days after the date you become aware of the alleged discrimination. Filing your complaint with any federal agency will also satisfy the requirement for timely filing. When filling out your complaint, please be sure to indicate that you are filing a Disability Discrimination Complaint so that your complaint is forwarded to the Compliance Officer for coordination.

Option 2: ADA Grievance Procedure

Medicaid recipients may, if they choose, make their complaints directly to the Compliance Officer as described below. The complaint should be in writing\(^3\) and contain information about the alleged discrimination such as name, address, phone number of complainant and location, date and description of the problem. To ensure that all necessary information is captured, an optional complaint form has been provided for this purpose. Alternative means of filing complaints will be made available for persons with disabilities upon request.

The ADA Compliance Officer or delegate will provide a response, and where appropriate, in a format accessible to the complainant within 30 business days.

If the complainant provides contact information and indicates that he or she desires to be informed of the outcome of the Agency’s investigation of the complaint, the Compliance Officer or delegate will provide notice of the outcome of the Agency’s investigation and the action taken, if any, to resolve the complaint.

If the complainant’s authorized representative submits an ADA complaint on behalf of a complainant and indicates that he or she wishes to be notified as to the outcome of the complaint investigation, the authorized representative must obtain a signed HIPAA authorization release form from the complainant. This document can be found at:

If the complainant believes the response does not satisfactorily resolve the issue due to a factual error or omission, the complainant and/or authorized representative may request an appeal in writing, within 15 calendar days after receipt of the response to the ADA Compliance Officer. Within 30 business days after receipt of the appeal, the ADA Compliance Officer or delegate will issue a final resolution in writing, and where appropriate, in a format accessible to the complainant.

All written complaints and appeals received by the ADA Compliance Officer or delegate and responses from this office will be retained by the Agency for at least three years.
IV.  Additional Resources

Disability Discrimination Complaints may also be made to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights (OCR) by “[a]n individual who believes that he or she or a specific class of individuals has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability by a public entity . . . , by himself or herself or by an authorized representative . . . .” 28 C.F.R. § 35.170(a). A description of your rights, the process to file a complaint with OCR, applicable federal regulations, and other resources are available at OCR’s website:
